Shitesh Agrawal
Society Achievers Award for Outstanding Achievements & Contribution to Architecture & Design.

Managing Director of Sankalp Designers, Shitesh Agrawal has a team-focused approach to projects. From homes to multi-family dwellings to townships to urban planning to corporate and commercial architecture, the company strives to be a pioneer of bespoke design, offering a combination of detailing, diverse design and cutting edge technology.

What does success/excellence mean to you?

For me, success and excellence in design are intricately tied to innovation. As a designer, the thrill of crafting something truly innovative goes beyond just meeting expectations — it's about surpassing them in ways that redefine what's possible. When I embark on a project, I see it as an opportunity to push boundaries, challenge norms, and introduce fresh perspectives. The satisfaction and happiness I derive from this process stem from the emotion of knowing that my work has sparked something new, something that resonates deeply with others. Success isn't just about delivering a product; it's about daring to think differently, reimagine possibilities, and leave a lasting impact.

What inspires you to keep moving forward?

What inspires me to keep moving forward is a multifaceted blend of appreciation, motivation, and the pursuit of growth. While appreciation for my work undoubtedly fuels my drive, it's complemented by a deeper motivation rooted in continuous learning and evolution. Each day presents an opportunity to expand my knowledge, hone my skills, and strive for excellence. The prospect of mastering new concepts, overcoming challenges, and pushing the boundaries of my capabilities serves as a powerful source of inspiration. Moreover, the satisfaction derived from personal and professional development fuels my intrinsic motivation, propelling me forward even in the face of obstacles.

What is your secret to facing challenges?

My secret to facing challenges is two-fold: Daring innovation and maintaining a calm mind. Innovation inherently brings obstacles, but viewing them as integral to the process fosters resilience and breakthroughs. Keeping a composed demeanour amidst adversity enables clearer thinking and rational problem-solving. Through daring innovation and a calm mind, I tackle challenges with creativity and confidence, ultimately achieving success.

What is the next goal that you are striving to achieve?

The next goal I'm striving to achieve is to position our firm as a leader capable of efficiently managing large-scale projects. We aim to expand our presence nationwide, becoming a go-to choice for clients seeking excellence and reliability on a grand scale. Each day, we set new benchmarks, pushing boundaries to elevate our capabilities and reputation. Through strategic planning, dedication, and unwavering commitment to excellence, we are poised to realise this goal and solidify our position as a top-tier firm in India and beyond.

Do you have any advice for someone who would like to follow a similar path?

Firstly, maintain a clear vision of your goals and stay committed to them, even in the face of obstacles or setbacks. Secondly, embrace a mindset of continuous learning and improvement, as growth is essential for progress. Thirdly, cultivate strong relationships and networks within your industry, as they can provide invaluable support and opportunities. Lastly, don't be afraid to take calculated risks and step out of your comfort zone, as innovation often requires venturing into uncharted territory.

Keeping It Real

Madhur Bhandarkar has turned his humble beginnings and tumultuous life experiences into art. He tells simple, beautiful, gut-wrenching stories with a flair all his own.

Madhur Bhandarkar is one of the film industry's most unassuming directors, considering he is a winner of multiple National Awards for his thought-provoking cinema. He was presented the Padma Shri Award in 2016.

Coming from humble beginnings, Madhur turned adversity into opportunity with his hunger for knowledge and love for films. His films always make a social comment about issues that most people sweep under the carpet. Gritty, unrelenting and as real as they come, his films are hard-hitting and unpretentious. As well as commercially successful.

To his films, he brings a journalistic-like approach, spending extended periods within the spaces he recreates on-screen, retaining the minutest of details. Through his work, he aims to hold a mirror up to society.

Redefining Excellence

In the bustling city of Pune, one name stands out as a beacon of success and vision: Rajan Khinvasara.

A titan in the realm of real estate, Rajan Khinvasara's leadership has propelled Manisha Constructions to the zenith of Pune's property market. Renowned for its residential, commercial, IT parks, malls, multiplexes, hospitality and retail ventures, Manisha Constructions bears the indelible mark of Khinvasara's foresight and entrepreneurial acumen. Yet, his influence extends beyond the realm of bricks and mortar. A passionate patron of cue sports, he has assumed the mantle of mentor and benefactor to emerging talents, reshaping the landscape of a sport often perceived as elitist.

What does success/excellence mean to you?

As a real estate mogul, success and excellence to me mean more than just selling and construction; it encompasses customer satisfaction. True excellence is achieved when what my team and I have delivered meets our own standards. However, success is measured by the satisfaction of our customers. It's not merely about handing over a building but ensuring that they receive a home. This customer-centric approach defines success in the realm of real estate.

What inspires you to keep moving forward?

In every facet of my life — be it religion, business, social endeavours, sports or personal pursuits — I've strived for balance and excellence, seeking satisfaction for all involved, including myself. The drive to effect positive change and uplift society propels me forward tirelessly. Beyond establishing myself in the real estate realm, I've passionately pursued my love for snooker and billiards. What is your secret to facing challenges?

Challenges have never intimidated me; I confront them head-on with unwavering confidence. My secret mantra lies in the belief that there are no true losses in life. When I embarked on my career, I possessed nothing — less than nothing, in fact, with debt looming. Every challenge presented an opportunity to gain, as anything acquired surpassed what I initially had. With this perspective, nothing seems insurmountable. My friends often joke that everything I touch turns to gold, but the truth is, from the moment we enter this world to the moment we depart, we possess nothing tangible. Thus, dwelling on losses serves no purpose; instead, I focus on maximizing each day's potential to enrich my life and leave a meaningful legacy. This mindset fuels my resilience in the face of adversity, transforming challenges into stepping stones towards personal and professional growth.

What is the next goal that you are striving to achieve?

After years in real estate, my dedication to snooker and billiards, along with my contribution to philanthropy, underscores my commitment to improving society. This realm is my 'Karambhoomi', where I feel indebted to effect positive change. I'm committed to this mission until my last breath, continuously striving to make a meaningful impact.

Do you have any advice for someone who would like to follow a similar path?

My life philosophy is simple: Whatever path you choose, find satisfaction in your efforts and delivery. My advice to those following a similar path is to embrace their passions, prioritise excellence, and cultivate moments of mindfulness that bring fulfillment and balance to both personal and professional spheres.

GR Iranna is an artist whose work is mature, profound and transcends boundaries of time and space.

Many of GR Iranna's paintings depict pain as an abstract force that is translated visually in bruised textures and razor-sharp cutting edges. His work is often evocative of human vulnerability and the fragility and impermanence of life.

A large element of his inspiration is ash, owed to its associations with both, birth and death - a return to nothingness, after coming full circle. His work, set on canvas as well as tarpaulin, are symbolic of important change. Like breaking free from an establishment, or claustrophobic style.
